Covering Immigration

Chicago is the nation's capital of ethnic diversity. What stories are we in the media missing?

May 15, 2018
6 to 8 p.m.
Columbia College Chicago
Film Row
1104 S. Wabash Ave.
8th floor

- Illinois has settled 3,000 refugees annually. What will it drop to in 2018?
- How are DACA youths (upwards of 40,000 in Illinois) dealing with uncertainties?
- How has the travel ban and increased harassment affected Muslim communities?
- The undocumented span many ethnicities and nationalities, including Latinos, Africans, Asians and Europeans. Are they safe even in a sanctuary city?
- Has there been an increase in ICE raids?

This is part of Public Narrative's ongoing 'speed-dating' programs held to inform and update journalists and journalism students on stories they may be missing while introducing them to community resources. After a short panel, journalists get time to talk to sources individually.

PUBLIC NARRATIVE